Remarks: Harry - It's obvious from the date that we've been sitting on this for awhile. I did mention to you Jack's doubts about the desirability or feasibility of a one-year tour of an industry man with the Agency. Let's talk about it. Remarks: Harry: Thanks to your assistance, the Agency again made a favorable impression on a group of responsible and interested outsiders. Further to Mr. Colby's earlier query about a one-year visitation for an individual from industry, would you rewrite your suggestion of 9 February 1972 and address it to the Executive Director. Also, attach a letter to Joseph McCullen proposing further discussion and exploration of this possibility with the Director of Personnel. John W. Coffey

MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Support

SUBJECT : Executive Interchange Program

1. Mr. Joseph McCullen phoned me to express the appreciation of members of the Executive Interchange Program for our briefing session with them on 24 March. They said they had been very favorably impressed by our willingness to receive them and the frankness of the answers to the questions they raised. I said we had been equally favorably impressed by the quality of the questions and the attention given by the group. We agreed that it would be advisable to make the visit an annual event.

2. Please thank the various elements in OTR and others who helped put on the affair. I think it was and will be useful to us.

W. E. Colby

Executive Director-Comptroller

The Honorable William Colby
Executive Director and Controller
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Bill,

The Presidential Interchange Executives were very impressed with their briefing at CIA on Tuesday afternoon. For them, it was a fascinating, informative and thoroughly enjoyable session.

Thank you very much for the role which you played. The PIE's deeply appreciated your involvement in the session - and also the chance to meet Mr. Helms.

I, too, appreciate all that you did, Bill. My only regret is that I was not able to attend.

Best personal regards.

Sincerely,
